

Our Indiana Telephone Privacy Law has been a very good thing. I was getting five or six telemarketing calls per day and now I don't get six in a month. I was ready to disconnect my phone before the law took effect. Please do not implement anything that decreases our protection.